PET CREMATORIUM

Give your clients a service you can be proud of Dignity is a small specialist individual pet crematorium established in 1992. It is currently run by three generations of the Spurgeon family. We are dedicated to offering a first class service to you and your clients that is very different to the service offered by your disposal company.

We mostly deal directly with your clients, allowing us to tailor our service to meet their needs. Although we prefer vets to offer our individual cremation service exclusively we can also work alongside your disposal firm providing you with an alternative pet crematorium as well as an extra level of care for your customers.

We have an excellent reputation with both pet owners and vets for our sympathetic, caring and professional service and are founder members of the Association of Private Pet Cemeteries & Crematoria (appcc.org.uk), which is still the only organisation in the UK setting standards for the pet bereavement industry.

We are passionate about what we do and feel that when pet owners request an individual cremation they expect their pet to be looked after properly by a specialist pet crematorium and not by a disposal firm. A testament to our service is that many veterinary staff using such companies bring their own pet to us when the time comes.
